

PreK3
Week 35-36

Highlights of our Activities:

Faith (We)

- practiced making the sign of the cross correctly.
- are praying the Hail Mary each morning.

Language Arts (We...)

- participated in group read-a-louds by making predictions and answering short questions. ...
- are reading stories about bees and their pollinating from flower to flower.
- thank Mrs. Condon for coming in and reading us the story of Ten Little Ladybugs, by Melanie Gerth. She also showed us how to count to ten using sign language.

Math (We...)

- used shapes to designate where we are going and what we are doing.

Art (We...)

- made art for Mother's Day.
- enjoyed listening to the children's Spring Concert! They are very talented and are growing in confidence!

Science and Social Studies (We...)

- are playing in small groups, learning to share during center time.

Movement (This week, with Dr. Staehling...)

- we practiced kicking goals with a soccer ball.
- we jumped, rolled, climbed and chased hula hoops.

NO SCHOOL

Thursday, June 1st (Last day of school): We will celebrate this successful year with a short program and picnic on Thursday, June 1st. The program will begin in the classroom at 10:50 am. At 11:00 we will move outside and spread out our picnic blankets on the Early Childhood playground area. Please bring your own blanket, picnic lunch and drink. If you cannot attend just send a picnic/bag lunch and I will have a blanket to share. Dismissal will be at the usual 11:30 am.

Featured book(s)

Bumbus, by Elsie Larson

The Very Greedy Bee, by Steve Smallman

Ten Little Ladybugs, by Melanie Gerth

Other Resource(s): <http://sothprek.weebly.com> classroom site

Sneak Peek into next week! We will be reading books about an adorable dog named Spike, written and illustrated by Paulette Bogan. Please send any show-n-tell item with your child on Thursday.

Direct your children onto the right path, and when they are older, they will not leave it. Proverbs 22:6
